

State will reimburse City of Indianapolis for excise tax error

(September 18) Due to a recently discovered historical excise tax distribution error that began over 30 years ago, the state will repay $13 million owed to the City of Indianapolis by hundreds of cities and towns. Governor Daniels and Indianapolis Mayor Bart Peterson announced that an agreement had been reached to deduct $13.1 million from the estimated $58 million Marion County owes to the state for housing juvenile offenders.

Read the news release

To listen to audio of the press conference with Governor Daniels and Mayor Peterson, click here.

Governor's Update

Volume 1, Issue 11
September 18-24, 2006

Governor provides Education Roundtable with cost estimates for full-day kindergarten

(September 20) Following up as he said he would on the Education Roundtable's September 13 discussion about full-day kindergarten and the cost estimates for implementation, Governor Daniels sent a memo to the Roundtable members that includes estimates for three different implementation scenarios.

A copy of the governor's memo and chart with cost estimates may be found here.

BUILDING ROADS.
CREATING JOBS.

Click on the symbol above to see the latest figures on the amount of interest earned on funds generated from Major Moves.

The hot streak continues...

(September 20) Indiana's economic hot streak continues as BP announced it will reconfigure its Whiting, Indiana refinery to handle Canadian heavy crude oil processing. The company's $3 billion investment will create up to 80 new permanent full-time jobs and 2,500 jobs during the 3-year construction phase.

Read the news release

To listen to audio of Governor Daniels' September 22 media availability, click here

Visit the photo gallery on Governor Daniels' Web site to view monthly pictures with captions of the governor at various events. Click here